LOOKING AHEAD

ACSI ACCREDITATION

TCS is accredited by Association Christian Schools International (ACSI). The school undergoes a reaccreditation process every five years. The administration and staff have spent the past years compiling necessary information and assembling a detailed report to submit to ACSI. This month, the school will have its three-day accreditation visit by the accrediting team. The accreditation team will comb through all aspects of the report and the school. TCS administration is anticipating the team's visit.
